

ANKC REGULATIONS – NON RESIDENT JUDGES.

The Affiliate of the ANKC Member Body contracting a Non Resident Judge in Australia is required to provide to their ANKC Member Body the following:

- i) ANKC Judging Application for "Persons not a Resident of Australia."
<http://www.dogsact.org.au/Forms/Overseas Judges Application.doc>

- ii) Payment of the relevant fee, payable to the ANKC to cover administration.

The fee is to be paid by the Affiliate contracting the Judge and requesting the approval.

Received by ANKC Member Body 9 months prior to the first show $50.00 inc. GST.

Received by ANKC Member Body less than 9 months prior to the first show $100.00 inc. GST.

- iii) A completed, current ANKC recognised breed/group list must accompany the application.
<http://www.dogsact.org.au/ankcnotices/ANKC Breed Listing.pdf>

Consists of a list of the breeds the judge has awarded Challenge Certificates or their equivalent in their country of residence or in any other country. The lists are not to be abbreviated and must be in English.

- iv) If possible, a copy of verification of what the Non Resident Judge is approved to award Challenge Certificates or their equivalent in their Country of residence from their Canine Controlling Body. The Controlling Body must be one that is recognised by the ANKC.

Consists of a list of all the breeds the Judge is approved to award Challenge Certificates or their equivalent in their country of residence.

If an Affiliate is unable to obtain this verification, the ANKC Member Body will obtain the information for an additional fee of $10.00.

- v) The name, State/Territory and date of each show the Non Resident Judge is likely to be contracted or sub-contracted to judge in Australia during their proposed stay in Australia.
- vi) A list of breeds the Non Resident Judge is proposed to judge at each of the above shows.

When the ANKC Member Body has all the above information, and only then the ANKC Member Body forward the information to the ANKC Administrator for approval or otherwise.

After processing the application, using the ANKC Regulations, the ANKC Administrator will advise the ANKC Member Body of the breeds for each show the Non Resident Judge has been approved, who in turn will advise the Affiliate.

A copy of this approval is required to be sent to each ANKC Member Body by the Affiliate for each show where the Non Resident Judge is judging, when submitting their Show Schedule for approval.

The contracting Affiliate is to send the following documents to the Non Resident Judge when all Judge's Contract/s have been confirmed:

- a. The Standards for all the breeds the Non Resident Judge has been approved to judge in Australia.
- b. The ANKC Glossary of Canine Terms
- c. ANKC Judging Dogs in Australia - Guidelines for Non Resident Judges, available from each ANKC Member Body at no charge.
