

Hi my name is Jenny Taylor and I live in Kempsey on the Mid North Coast of NSW.

I joined Dogs NSW in 1998 to enter an obedience trial, later that year I entered my first agility trial and soon became addicted. I have mainly trialed working dogs that have been given to me from local farmers. Now I trial Australian Kelpies.

I became a judge back in 2008 so I could give back something to the sport I love.

I really enjoy designing courses and watching handler and dog teams run them.
