This trial could not be held without the assistance of the ACT Companion Dog Club for the use of their grounds, and their Obedience trialling sub-committee for all their help with the ring set up and catering for our judges and officials.

Of course, no trial can run without Stewards and I'd like to thank the following for their assistance today: Liz Giles, Laraine Frawley, Maelyn Draper, Lara Sedgmen, Karen Hore and Natasha Davies.

A huge thank you as always to our wonderful Dogs ACT Representative, Patricia Woodman, for again agreeing to take on this role for us.

And thank you, the triallers, and your wonderful dogs, for your entry today. I look forward to seeing you all at our next trial. Happy trialling for today, and safe travels home later, to those who have come from afar.
