JUDGE: HILARE YEATES "MYSHALAIR"

Becoming a judge has been a dream and goal of mine for many years, but it just didn't feel like the timing was right in the past. In 2019 I said to myself, "Stop putting it off." So began the process to start on a massive journey, and it is a journey, one that I look forward to exploring as it continues.

In 1996, two small children, recently purchased our first home my husband and I were deciding on a family pet, he had come from a home where his mother had shown for many years in New Zealand - golden retrievers) so we settled on that getting a girl from Willowbrook Kennels in Western Australia. Willowbrook Alantra. We ended up a few weeks later getting her sister also for company. Willowbrook Alexia. I didn't know much about showing, but Shaun kept saying I should look into it, he felt I would enjoy it.

A few months later, taking my two young pups along to my daughter's day care for "bring your pet along" day, I met someone who also had taken a couple golden retrievers in. We chatted and she invited me to come and watch the show that was on that weekend. I loved it and from then on was hooked. I joined the WA Canine and entered my first show about 4 weeks later. Anthea Adamopoulos helped me learn the basics & taught me how to groom my girls, often handling them for me as I was too nervous to go in the ring. But I loved it and the following year applied for my prefix. MYSHALAIR est 1997.

While under her guidance, I met and fell in love with the other breed her family showed- cocker spaniels and purchased one late 1998 – JD, a black boy named Sagapore Black N Blue, after that this beautiful breed found its way into my heart and has stayed there. Having a break from showing due to work changes and having another baby I returned to showing in 1999 then added a gold show girl in early 2000 and Sagapore Golden Dreams was the first cocker I ever entered at Brisbane Royal and the Cocker Spaniel National held in Brisbane 2000.

In 2004, after a major change in family circumstances, my 3 children and 1 dog made the massive relocation move from Perth to Brisbane, where once settled I returned to the show world. Purchasing my first blue roan and continued to show both solids and roans.

In 2013, I met a lovely lady who has been a big part of my life with cockers, her friendship and guidance has been a strength to me ever since. Mrs Lorraine Emerton of Watersmeet Cocker Spaniels. Having shown & titled several of her dogs for her over the years, she gave me my heart Dizzy, Ch Watersmeet Dancing At Dusk. She gave me my future. Lorraine continued to be a great friend & mentor and to this day I still often wish I could ring her for a chat.

It is due to people like this and many others that my love of dogs, and dog showing has grown, to me with Judging being the next step to broaden my journey.

I am extremely honoured to have been asked judge your club show today, a breed I will love as long as I live.
